

Contribution ID: 770

Type: Panel

State, gender, & materialism in international historical sociology

Friday, 19 June 2020 10:00 (1h 30m)

This panel explores the interweaving of questions of state, sovereignty, material resources, and gender in international historical sociology. Geographical spaces considered include the Middle East and North Africa along with China and its region.

Track Classification: Historical Sociology and International Relations Working Group