Future Challenges for International Political Economy

Wednesday, 17 June 2020 13:00 (1h 30m)

This panel brings together a range of scholars working in the field of International Political Economy. The panel aims to (a) take stock of current scholarly trends within the field of IPE in the UK; and (b) reflect on 'future challenges' for the field. These include: 'blindspots' in IPE, Brexit, decolonising IPE, and re-thinking IPE from the perspective(s) of gender, work and religion.
