

Contribution ID: 799

Type: Panel

Global Political Economies of Trade and Development

Thursday, 18 June 2020 10:00 (1h 30m)

This panel draws together new empirical and theoretical research concerned with the political economy of trade and development. The panel will raise important issues regarding the governance of global trade and aid regimes, the impact of these governance regimes, and the politics and practice of neoliberalism within contemporary international development.

Track Classification: International Political Economy Working Group