

Contribution ID: 670

Type: Panel

Environmental Harm and Justice

Thursday, 18 June 2020 10:00 (1h 30m)

The contemporary world is experiencing myriad environmental harms and injustices. Perceptions of such harms as climate change, biodiversity loss and deforestation differ according to the communities experiencing them. This panel addresses the contested and contingent nature of environmental harm and injustice, through recourse to a range of cases and regions.

Track Classification: Environment Working Group