Changing the dynamics of conflict in the Middle East

Wednesday, 17 June 2020 17:00 (1h 30m)

This panel focuses on conflict dynamics on multiple scales in the Middle East and most specifically in Palestine-Israel. It explores how identity, sport and populist politics, resistance and perseverance underpin or influence struggles for justice. The panel will examine the role of international actors including how European policies in the region are increasingly challenged with the rise of populist identity politics in Europe.
