Public diplomacy, Influence and Knowledge Production

Thursday, 16 June 2022 15:00 (1h 30m)

This panel explores public diplomacy, influence and knowledge production in countries across the Middle East, Mediterranean and Asia and how this influences sustainable development and national identity. It explores gendered practices of knowledge production and the role of the media and state actors in international diplomacy and representations of the state. It investigates how diplomatic norms are constructed and the impact of these on regional relations, exploring domestic consensus building as well as international interactions between countries of the region.
