Transnational politics, nationalisation, geopolitics and the state

Thursday, 16 June 2022 15:00 (1h 30m)

Looking at Islamic institutions and politics, this panel also explores how the hegemonic order and geopolitics of the region have developed in times of conflict and state reconfigurations. From the Kurdish case, to Syria and Egypt and across North Africa, papers also explore how rivalries between countries in the region impact on post-Arab Spring politics. The panel discusses how transnational groups do politics, and investigates new conceptions of Islam, democracy and political rights.
