

Contribution ID: 837

Type: not specified

Reimagining / complicating everyday security discourse and praxis

Thursday, 16 June 2022 15:00 (1h 30m)

Amna Kaleem: The international is personal – situating the individual in the transversality of P/CVE

Alice Finden: Tracing the persistence and fragmentation of coloniality within contemporary pre-criminal tools

Fabrizio Cuccu: 'Everyday security' and religion in post-authoritarian spaces: understanding the security discourse through mundane practices in Tunisia

Yrsa Landström: Re-imagining Counterterrorism: The Politics of Emotions in Deradicalisation

Julian Schmid: I saw it with my Drone Eyes: Fantasies of Targeted Killing and Dangerous Spaces

Track Classification: Critical Studies on Terrorism Working Group