

Contribution ID: 839

Type: Panel

(State) Terrorism and violence: Processes of legitimisation in (in)security narratives

Friday, 17 June 2022 15:00 (1h 30m)

Lisa Stampnitzky: From official secrets to official discourse: how the state came to justify torture

Raquel da Silva, Catarina Rosa: Ideologically inspired hate crimes: Victims' narratives and police officers' unconscious cognitive biases

Ugo Gaudino: How do political parties translate security? Securitization of Islam from the populist radical Right to the Left

Joel Abdelmoez: "The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia Sends its Condolences" : Twitter diplomacy and governmental responses to terrorism

Frank Foley: Rhetorical manoeuvres to enable torture: 'reverse shaming' and narrative contestation in Spain and the UK

Track Classification: Critical Studies on Terrorism Working Group