

Contribution ID: 1152

Type: Panel

Exploring structures of power in space

Wednesday, 21 June 2023 10:45 (1h 30m)

This panel will examine space power through different lenses, the authors will explore the structures that impact upon relationships in space. The selected papers will look at structural power, racism, links to past colonialism, and ways that space policy favours different interests. Through these lenses we will establish a closer understanding of what constitutes space power.

Membership

Track Classification: Astropolitics Working Group