British
International
Studies
Association

Contribution ID: 1201   Type: Panel

The future of tech, the future of security?

Friday, 23 June 2023 10:45 (1h 30m)

This panel considers the role of artifical intelligence in the military and defence context including the anthropomorphizing of AI, defence decision-making and AI, Human Security and AI, and the politics and discourse around the use of technologies such as drones and facial recognition technology (FRT).

Membership

Track Classification: International Studies and Emerging Technologies Working Group