Advocacy, Protest and Activism

Thursday, 6 June 2024 13:15 (1h 30m)

The causes and consequences of protest and violent activism(s) form the basis for this panel, which brings together researchers working on different forms of advocacy, protest, and (violent) activism. The panel will explore how extremist groups use online technology, how resources and ecology shape protest, and how conspiracy theories and anarchism fuel anti-government activism.

Track Classification: Political Violence, Conflict and Transnational Activism
