Ethics and World Politics: the Anthropocene, Mobilities and Neocolonialism

Friday, 7 June 2024 09:00 (1h 30m)

This panel addresses urgent ethical questions in a world shaped by environmental destruction, human and more than human mobilities and the enduring presence of colonialism. In this context, papers address feminist eco-pacifist praxes, death in the refugee crisis, degrowth, neocolonialism in international rights law and demographic change and existential risks.
