Securitisation of Migration and Asylum in Europe: Perceptions, Representation and Management

Wednesday, 5 June 2024 10:45 (1h 30m)

This panel explores the processes of migration management and 'bordering practices' at the European borders. It looks into the new employed technologies at the borders, the proliferation of the private visa application company, and the growing securitisation of migrants and refugees. Through documentary photography and media discourse analysis light is shed to the perception, representation and management of migration and asylum in the UK, Greece and Portugal.
