

Contribution ID: 1652

Type: not specified

Forced migration, asylum, and citizenship from the UK to the Global South

Wednesday, 5 June 2024 16:45 (1h 30m)

This panel brings together papers on forced migration, labour and citizenship issues in the UK. It explores the figure of the migrant and the worker, it analyses forced migration of Kurds, transnational consequences of national policies based on the experience of Kuwaiti women, and the role the role of diasporic organisations (focussing on the Romanian community) on human trafficking and exploitation in the UK.

Track Classification: International Politics of Migration, Refugees and Diaspora Working Group