Rethinking Nuclear Order: Survival, Victimhood, and Resistance

Wednesday 18 June 2025 09:00 (1h 30m)

This panel critically rethinks the foundations of nuclear order by interrogating themes of survival, victimhood, gender, and resistance. Drawing on diverse perspectives, including securitization, gender, and colonial legacies, the panel explores how nuclear policies and discourses shape, and are shaped by, power dynamics and struggles for justice in a nuclear age
