

Contribution ID: 1901 Contribution code: WE03

Type: Panel

Intelligence and Disinformation in European Security

Wednesday 3 June 2026 15:00 (1h 30m)

At a time when European security is characterised by hybrid, cross-border and evolving threats, states increasingly rely on intelligence cooperation and liaison. In this panel, scholars explore European and transatlantic cooperation in the spheres of intelligence and disinformation to understand how these challenges are addressed and what challenges states and international organisations face in doing so.

Track Classification: European Security Working Group