

Contribution ID: 2146 Contribution code: FR05

Type: Panel

Institutional Challenges and Contemporary Security

Friday 5 June 2026 15:00 (1h 30m)

This panel explores the institutional challenges that shape contemporary security and the contemporary security challenges that shape institutions. From gender equality and violence to how militaries reason and learn from past operations. The papers consider how organisational identities are formed, defended, and transformed, and how these internal dynamics influence wider security practices.

Track Classification: War Studies Working Group